

TOCAR Y SOÑAR

Inspirates Motivates Develops Integrates

Integrate Foundation Arte y Cultura (FIAC), we work for a world where all people from all backgrounds, especially girls, boys and young people, have access to culture and the arts. We create comprehensive opportunities that allow this group of people to develop their talent and be participants in the construction of a better quality of life for themselves, their families and their communities.

FIAC Inspires, Motivates, Develops and Integrates, all sectors of society through the promotion of art and culture. Focused on people from different economic backgrounds, especially those who are disadvantaged so that they liberate their full potential.

Systemic change

We seek to create innovative programs that improve conditions so that art and culture are accessible to all people. We aim to give our population dignified and sustainable livelihoods, and support in developing their talent to its maximum potential.

OUR GOAL

The Problem

In Mexico, youth, especially women, encounter structural obstacles to harnessing and developing their artistic talent, to have stable long-term careers and with conditions of decent work that allows them to exercise their cultural rights fully and enjoy a productive life.

80% of young musicians have more than one job.

The average salary of musicians barely exceeds 36% of the poverty line.

96% are informal workers, without contracts and several conditions of precarious work.

3.5% only, are women.

With the objective of contributing to the construction of individual and collective cultural capital; boosting music and culture; giving a second opportunity for new Mexican talents and creating new youths audiences.

TOCAR Y SOÑAR

The “Tocar y Soñar” Play and Dream program seeks to promote the creation of artistic groups and musical ensembles through the teaching of formal training in the study, appreciation and execution of artistic disciplines to the musical professionalization of girls, boys and young people up to 25 years old.

Creating opportunities to start early, obtaining years of prior studies and experience is crucial for the professional development of talent. The lack of this opportunities could result in the abandonment of their careers and interests.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

We provide full scholarships including more than 2,000 hours of training.

With specialized teachers and access to top-notch technical and artistic resources, including all the instruments necessary for their learning.

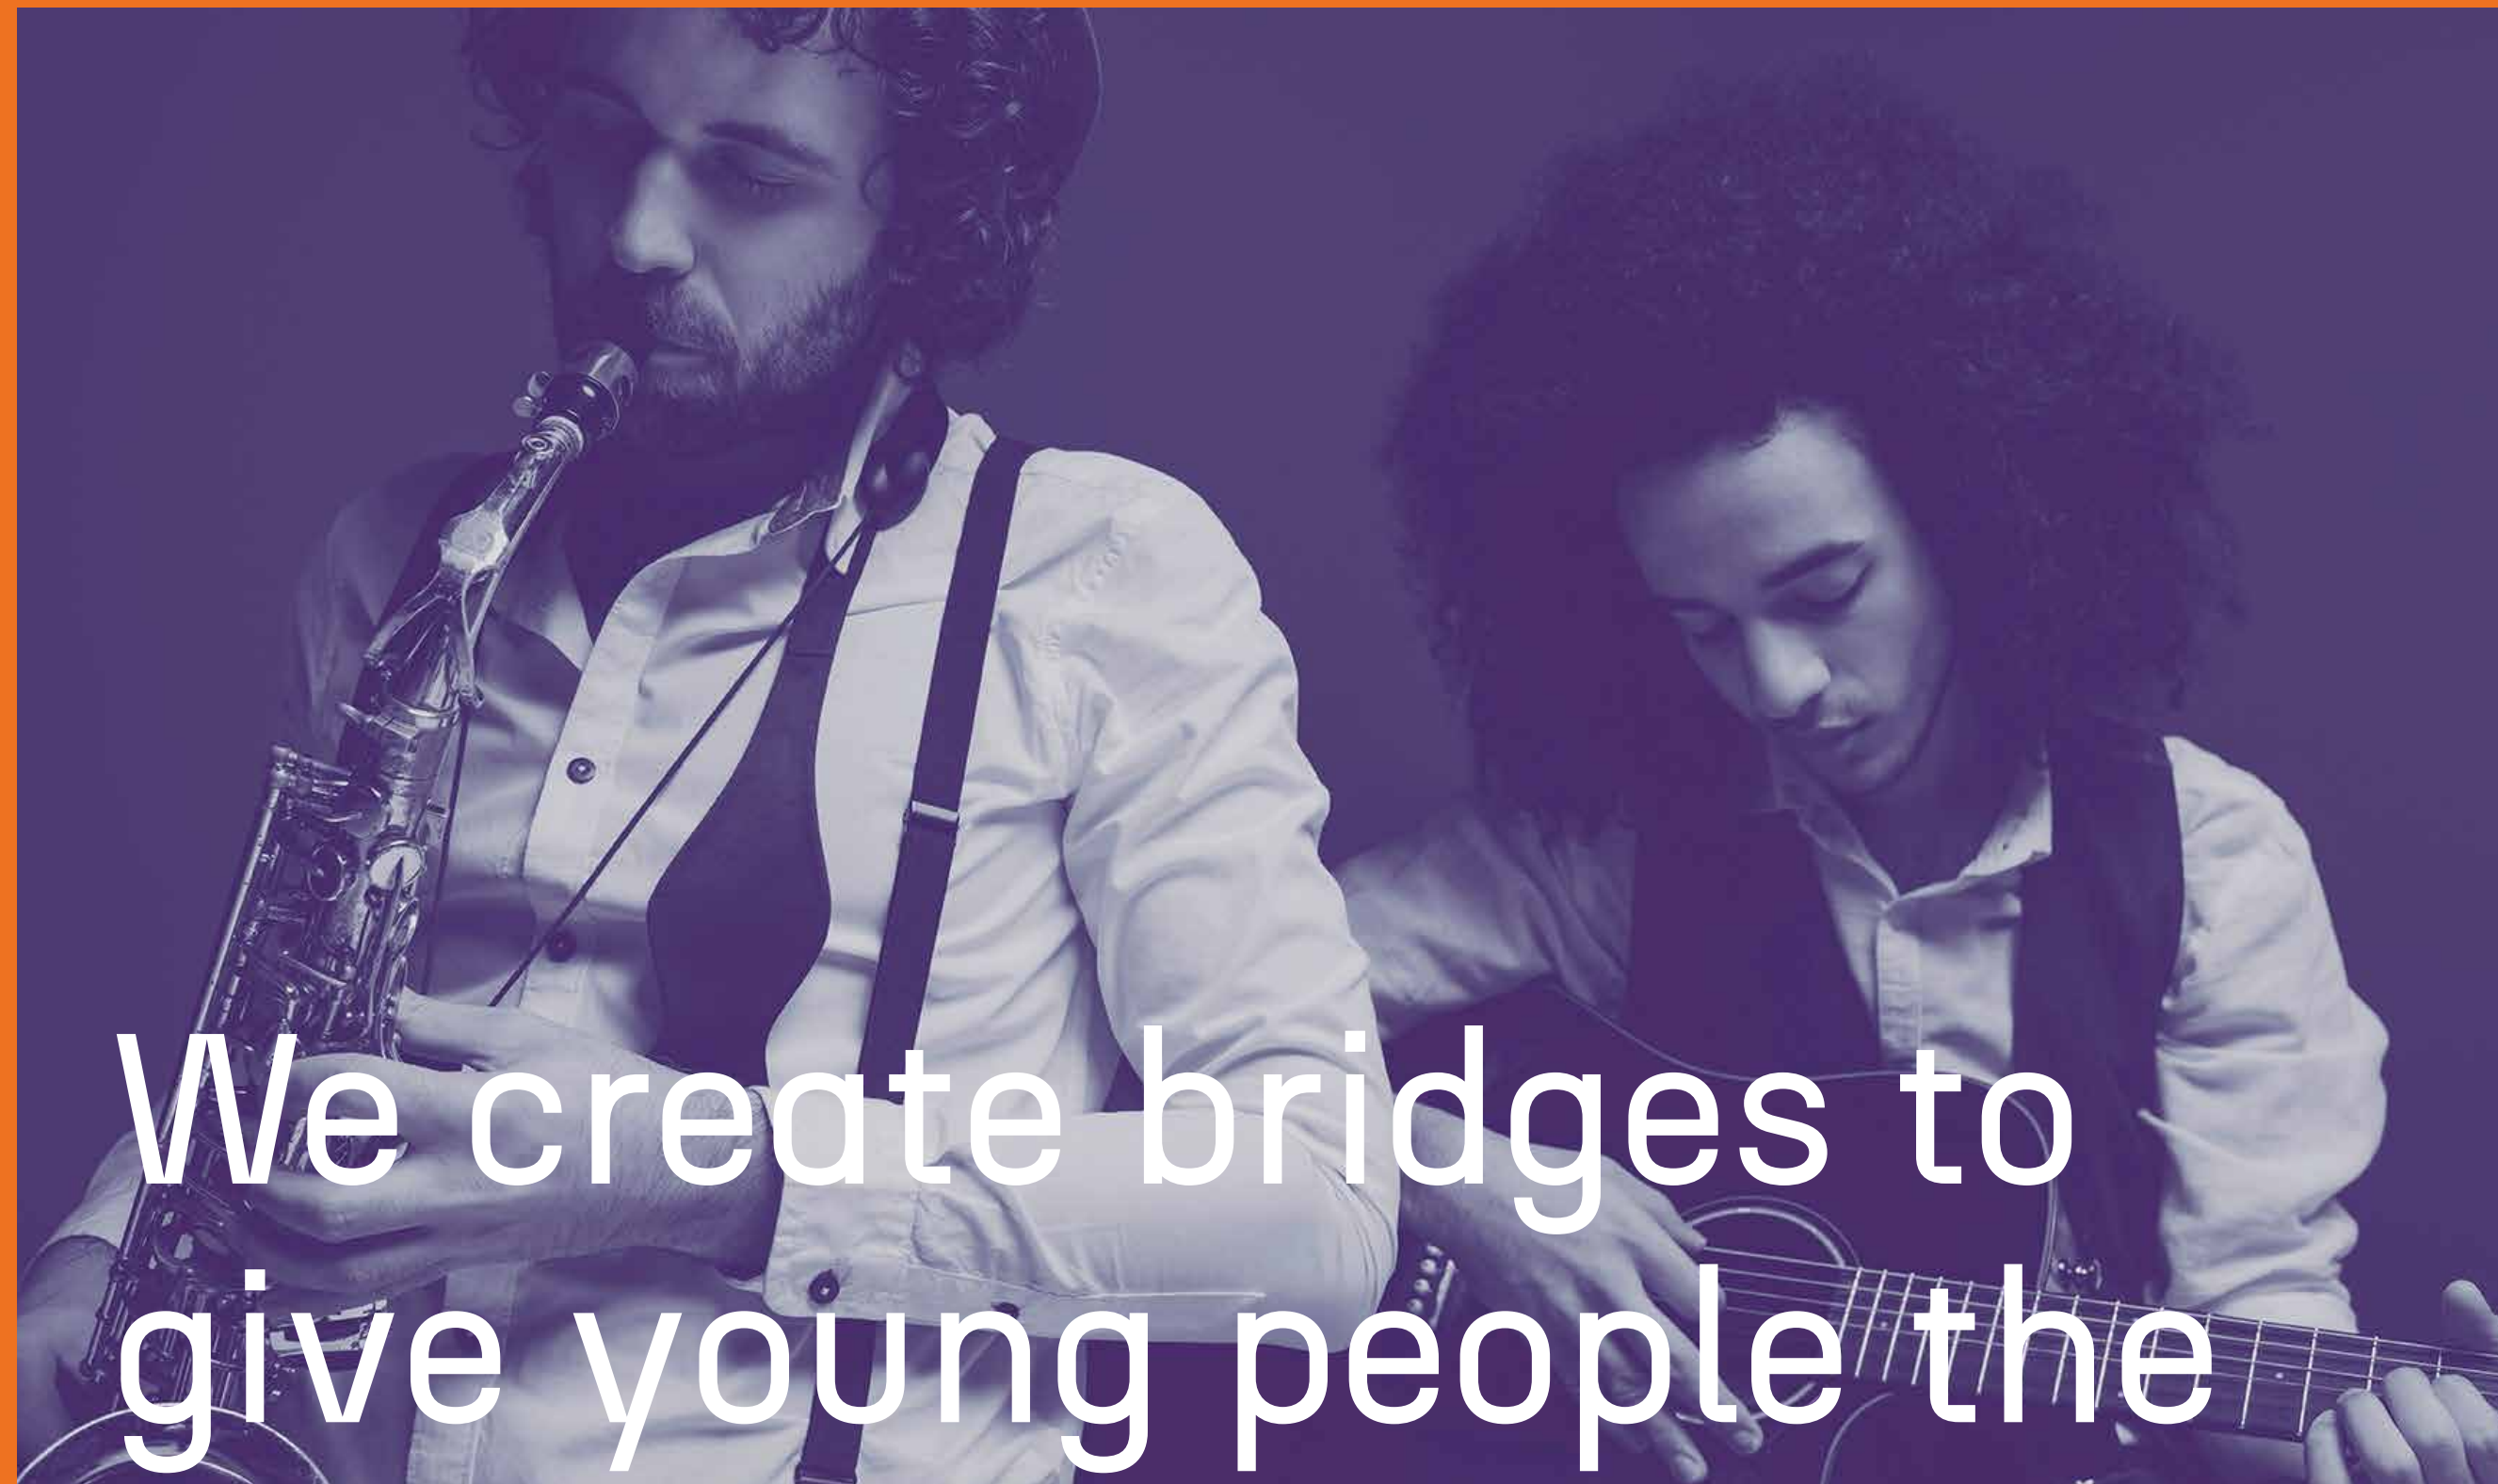

This model provides a unique opportunity so that young talented people can develop skills and passion for music.

A young woman with long dark hair is shown from the side, playing a violin. The image has a warm, reddish-orange tint, suggesting a sunset or sunrise background. The violin is held in her left hand, and her right hand is positioned to play the strings. The overall mood is artistic and focused.

Tocar y Soñar not only focuses on musical technique, also works to improve personal and professional growth of the young scholarship recipients.

We provide support in other cross-cutting areas and skills that are crucial in professional life.

Such as musical reading, theory, music history and ear training, teamwork, tolerance, discipline, responsibility, leadership and communication.

We create bridges to give young people the opportunity to important national and international stages.

We offer follow up and professional advice.

Even after finishing the scholarship, to help them create their portfolios, continue their career in music and achieve their professional goals to build long-term careers.

We support a totally inclusive environment.

FIAC focuses on finding young talents from different origins and social economic backgrounds. In this way, it ensures equal opportunities for those who would otherwise not be able to access a musical education of quality.

-Talent does not discriminate.
And neither do we-

MÉXICO
ORQUESTA
SINFÓNICA

In Mexico, 8 out of 10 attendees to cultural events are young people, but only 2% of them attend classical music concerts.

Mexican youth needs a new option that responds to their interests.

MOS is the first ensemble of the Tocar y Soñar program. MOS has the purpose of discovering, cultivating, supporting and accompanying Mexican talent at its best national and international high echelons of music.

Our program offers more than 2,000 free hours of teaching in instrumental technique, music theory and orchestral ensemble in decent spaces.

HOW TO SUPPORT US?

We are a family dedicated to the power of music.

The Tocar y Soñar program impacts applicants from any socioeconomic status and diverse backgrounds, whether or not they have previous experience or instruments. By choosing to sponsor MOS, you're not just supporting music; you are building a path for new talents.
